Last updated: August 12th, 2010 05:37 PM (PDT)

Mt. Baker Harley-Davidson will host a pre-registration party Friday and Saturday, Aug. 13-14, for the Special Olympics Washington NW Ride of Dreams and Classic Car Show.

The Ride of Dreams and Classic Car Show will take place Aug. 28 in Ellensburg.

Representatives from Special Olympics Washington and the Law Enforcement Torch Run Campaign will be on site from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday to pre-register riders.

Greg Head, owner of Mt. Baker Harley-Davidson, located at 1421 N. State St., will serve as the grill master for an on-site barbeque.

The Ride of Dreams is expected to draw more than 4,000 bikers with a registration fee of $30 per bike or classic car. All proceeds benefit Special Olympics Washington.
